

Our Vision

Pointing the way to QUALITY

A peer review partner now and for the future.

You need Independent Peer Review if you're faced with any of the following situations:

- Only one physician of a specialty on staff
- Two cardiologists on staff, but both are in the same practice group
- New services are offered (e.g., 64-slice CT, sleep study) with need to validate interpretation
- An adverse event occurred with concern regarding standard of care
- A physician requests additional clinical privileges
- There is question whether a physician's privileges should be reduced or revoked
- External review/testimony is needed as part of an internal fair hearing process
