

PEER REVIEW PANEL RESOURCES

CIMRO credentials and maintains our own peer reviewer panel consisting of all major specialties and subspecialties. All independent peer reviewers are board certified, licensed, and in active practice, when applicable.

Currently, our peer review panel is:

- ❖ Comprised of nearly 700 credentialed and re-credentialed physician reviewers and allied health professionals
- ❖ Trained and knowledgeable of the peer review process
- ❖ Protected through strict confidentiality and conflict of interest provisions
- ❖ Supported by registered nurses, case managers, data and research assistants, health information management professionals, information technology experts, project managers with extensive healthcare experience and an experienced leadership team
